

Webinar on reducing teen pregnancies in South Africa: what works and what can be scaled up?

Hosted by the Clinton Health Access Initiative (CHAI) and the Health Systems Trust (HST)

Date & time: Monday, 19 September 2022 from 14h00 – 15h30 SAST (GMT+2)

Access: Virtually via Teams Meeting link

PROGRAMME

Welcome and setting the ground rules	Dr Thato Chidarikire is currently the Acting Chief Director for Child, Youth and School Health Services in the NDoH. She's also the Director for HIV Prevention Programmes in the Department and will be moderating this webinar.	14:00 – 14:05	5 min
Opening remarks	Dr Yogan Pillay, the convenor of this webinar, is the Country Director of the Clinton Health Access Initiative in South Africa and Senior Director for Universal Health Coverage.	14:05 – 14:10	5 min
Implementing partner perspectives on providing SRH services	Jenny Mcloughlin, TB HIV Care, Programme Director: PPPREV/PrEP	14:10 – 14:20	10 min
Contributions on experiences of facility Youth Health services	Nelie Mahlati, Operational Manager in the Eastern Cape Department of Health at Ngangelizwe Community Health Centre (CHC) under King Sabata Dalindyebo Municipality, Mthata	14:20 – 14:30	10 min
	Thulina Moukangwe, LGBTQI+ Sector Leader with provincial level for the Treatment Action Campaign (TAC) in Gauteng	14:30 – 14:40	10 min
	Amahle Ndlovu from Inanda Seminary Clinic in Durban	14:40 – 14:50	10 min
Possible actions for scaling up teen pregnancy prevention	Dr Venkatraman Chandra-Mouli leads work on Adolescent Sexual and Reproductive Health (ASRH) in the World Health Organization's Department of Sexual and Reproductive Health and Research (which encompasses the UNDP/UNFPA/UNICEF/WHO/World Bank Human Reproductive Programme).	14:50 – 15:05	15 min
Q & A	All	15:05 – 15:25	20 min
Closing	Dr Thato Chidarikire	15:25 – 15:30	5 min